Ape Cave was named by the Scout Troop in honor of their sponsor, the St. Helens Apes. This local group was made up primarily of foresters. The sponsor's name, St. Helens Apes, may have come from an old term used for foresters in the area, "brush apes," or from the legend of Bigfoot. An Uncommon Eruption:

Nonhuman apes can stand or sit erect with great facility, and occasionally they walk upright, especially when carrying an object. Apes have broad chests, scapulae on the back, and full rotation at the shoulder. There is a pad of cartilage (meniscus) between the ulna and the carpal bones in the wrist that gives the wrist great flexibility.

ape | Definition & Facts | Britannica

There was a fourth ape in Escape from the Planet of the Apes, but he was a contemporary non-intelligent ape in a zoo who tried in his confused way to befriend the brilliant visitors. He was played by Janos Prohaska who specialized in portraying apes on the screen. Some sources list Hungarian-born Prohaska as having portrayed Heloise, others mention his onscreen killing of Dr Milo, however ...
